SECTION 1073, WITH UNLAWFUL FLIGHT TO AVOID CONFINEMENT AFTER BEING CONVICTED OF SETTING OFF EXPLOSIVES DANGEROUSLY NEAR AN INHABITED DWELLING, A FELONY UNDER THE LAWS OF ALABAMA. THIS FEDERAL WARRANT CARRIES A PENALTY OF NOT MORE THAN $5000 OR IMPRISONMENT FOR NOT MORE THAN FIVE YEARS OR BOTH. STONER'S PERSONAL MAIL, AS WELL AS MAIL FROM THE NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY OF WHICH STONER IS CLOSELY AFFILIATED, IS MAILED AND RECEIVED FROM P. O. BOX 1211, MARIETTA, GEORGIA 30060, MAIN BRANCH.

TN

IT IS ESSENTIAL TO THE SUCCESS OF THIS INVESTIGATION THAT A MAIL COVER BE OBTAINED. ✓ BIRMINGHAM HAS REQUESTED THAT THE SUBSCRIBERS OF THE "THUNDERBOLT" MAGAZINE BE DETERMINED AND AT PRESENT, ATLANTA AGENTS HAVE HAD NO SUCCESS OBTAINING THIS INFORMATION.

GA

PURSUANT TO OBTAINING A MAILING LIST OF ALL "THUNDERBOLT" SUBSCRIBERS, IT IS BELIEVED ONLY ONE OUTGOING COVER WILL BE NEEDED AT SOMETIME DURING THE FIRST PART OF MARCH WHEN THE "THUNDERBOLT" IS MAILED OUT AT A BULK RATE.

✓ THE "THUNDERBOLT" IS A KU KLUX KLAN (KKK) ORIENTED NEWSPAPER WHICH IS PUBLISHED BY SEVERAL OF STONER'S CLOSE AFFILIATES WHO ARE BELIEVED TO KNOW STONER'S WHEREABOUTS. ATLANTA AGENTS HAVE ATTEMPTED TO INTERVIEW PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH STONER AND THE "THUNDERBOLT" BUT AT PRESENT, NONE HAVE BEEN COOPERATIVE.

IT IS BELIEVED THAT IF STONER STILL REMAINS IN THE U. S., HE IS BEING PROTECTED BY ONE OR MORE OF THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE "THUNDERBOLT". THEREFORE, THE ATLANTA OFFICE IS REQUESTING BOTH A MAIL COVER ON ALL FIRST CLASS INCOMING MAIL TO P. O. BOX 1211 FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS AS WELL AS AN OUTGOING COVER TO OBTAIN A MAILING LIST OF ALL THE SUBSCRIBERS OF THE "THUNDERBOLT" WHO ARE ONCE A MONTH MAILED A COPY OF STONER'S MAGAZINE VIA THIS P. O. BOX.

STONER COULD BE CONTACTED [REDACTED] OR [REDACTED] THROUGH

REQUESTED TO BE PLACED ON ANY FIRST CLASS MAIL ADDRESSED TO EITHER

Instructions

Subject Priorities for FBI Arrest or Locates:

- A - Subject wanted for crimes of violence (i.e. murder, manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault) or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- B - Subjects wanted for crimes involving the loss or destruction of property valued in excess of $25,000 or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- C - All others

Claiming Convictions Other Than Federal:

It is permissible to claim a local (state, county or local) conviction if the FBI's investigation significantly contributed to the successful local prosecution. A succinct narrative setting forth the basis for claiming a local conviction must accompany this report. When claiming a conviction other than Federal, enter the word "LOCAL" in the "Conviction-Section" block, disregard the number of conviction counts, but enter the sentence in the appropriate blocks. Enter "LF" in the "In-Jail" block for all life sentences and "CP" for all capital punishment sentences.

Reporting Convictions:

Convictions should not be reported until the sentence has been issued. There are two exceptions to this rule. The conviction information can be submitted by itself if:

- 1. The subject becomes a fugitive after conviction but prior to sentencing.
- 2. The subject dies after conviction but prior to sentencing.

An explanation is required in the Remarks section for either of the above exceptions.

Rule 20 Situations:

The field office that obtained the process (normally the office of origin) is the office that should claim the conviction, not the office where the subject enters the plea in cases involving Rule 20 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures.

Investigative Assistance or Techniques (IA/Ts) Used:

- Since more than one IA/T could have contributed to the accomplishment, each IA/T must be rated.

- The IA/T used must be rated each time an accomplishment is claimed. (For example - if informant information was the basis for a complaint, an arrest, a recovery and a conviction and if separate FD-515s are submitted for each of the aforementioned accomplishments, the "Informant Information" block must be rated on each FD-515 even if it was the same information that contributed to all the accomplishments.)

Dear [REDACTED]

Your April 8th correspondence to Judge Webster regarding comments made by Special Agent in Charge Cecil E. Moses about J. B. Stoner was referred to me for reply.

In reviewing this matter, I find SAC Moses' comments concerning J. B. Stoner were appropriate and consonant with his official responsibilities. As you are aware, Mr. Stoner stands at this time a convicted felon who is fleeing incarceration. He was convicted of having perpetrated a dangerous act--setting off explosives dangerously near an inhabited dwelling. In furtherance of our statutory responsibility to locate this or any fugitive, we have an obligation to release information to the public which will assist us in this purpose and also to alert law enforcement officers and the public at large to the dangerousness of the individual sought.

I can certainly understand your concerns since you are a governing member of an organization with which Mr. Stoner was affiliated. I'm sure that a great deal of this concern is based on a friendship you shared with Mr. Stoner. Of course, you must realize that everyone's best interests will be served when Mr. Stoner is taken into custody and the laws of our Nation are vindicated. Any assistance you can render in this regard will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Roger S. Young
Assistant Director in Charge
Office of Congressional and Public Affairs

Jesse Benjamin Stoner has served as this group's vice president and is currently a fugitive felon. He was convicted on 5/14/80 for setting off explosives dangerously near an inhabited dwelling, a felony under Title 14, Section 123, Court of Alabama, 1940. Stoner appealed and was released on Appeal Bond pending further court action. On appeal, the conviction was affirmed on 4/20/83 and certiorari was denied by the Alabama Supreme Court and the U. S. Supreme Court. Stoner was due to surrender to Jefferson County, Alabama, authorities on 1/28/83. He did not and a warrant for his arrest was issued by state authorities in Alabama and his Appeal Bond ordered forfeited. Subsequently a UFAC warrant was issued. Informant information that Stoner and MARMURS fugitive Gordon Wendell Kahl have been seen together in Mexico was recently received in Dallas. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] " regarding J. B. Stoner.

This matter has been reviewed by the Office of Professional Responsibility at FBINQ and it was determined no such investigation is warranted.

On May 14, 1980, Stoner was convicted in the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Birmingham, Alabama, for setting off explosives near an inhabited church building in violation of Alabama Penal Felony Laws. Stoner appealed that conviction and was released on appeal bond. On April 20, 1982, the conviction was affirmed. On January 28, 1983, Stoner failed to surrender to the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office to begin serving his sentence and a local warrant was issued for his arrest.

On February 3, 1983, a complaint charging Stoner with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Confinement was filed before United States Magistrate James F. Reddoch, Jr. at Birmingham, Alabama, under Title 18, Section 1073, United States Code. Bond was recommended at $250,000. A fugitive form letter was submitted February 4, 1983, putting Stoner in the National Crime Information Center (NCIC). Stoner is described as a white male, date of birth April 13, 1924, at Walker County, Alabama, 5' 6", 160 lbs., blue eyes, brown hair, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) number 642111E, who walks with a limp in his left foot. His home is in Marietta, Georgia, where he has close contact with the publishers of "The Thunderbolt" magazine put out by the National States Rights Party. He has close ties with the Ku Klux Klan.

Information has been received that Stoner traveled to Mexico City, Mexico, where on April 16, 1983, he moved to an unknown address. Further information indicates he may have been in Durango, Mexico, as recently as May 7, 1983. The Dallas Division of the FBI has received information that Stoner may be running with Gordon Kahl who is being sought on Federal charges for killing a United States Marshal in North Dakota. Kahl is a white male, born January 18, 1920, 5' 7", 160 lbs., white balding hair, hazel eyes, scar on forehead, FBI number 3209-851-R4. More recent information indicates Stoner originally went to Arriga, Mexico, and later traveled to Mexico City, Mexico.

FBI links Stoner, tax extremist

By Bill Montgomery
Staff Writer.

Fugitive white supremacist J.B. Stoner may be in hiding with Gordon Kahl, an anti-tax extremist accused of killing two U.S. marshals in a February shootout in North Dakota, an FBI supervisor said Thursday.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has advised its agents to expect both men to be armed and dangerous.

Agents have interviewed a number of Ku Klux Klan members and other racial extremists associated with both Stoner and Kahl, a member of a radical right-wing group known as the Posse Comitatus, according to Cecil Moses, special agent in charge of the FBI's Birmingham, Ala., office.

In an interview Thursday, Moses said, he considers it a "distinct possibility" that an underground network of racist, anti-Semitic and anti-federal-government hate groups that has existed since the 1960s could be providing shelter to both Stoner and Kahl.

"They could well wind up in the same location. They could certainly be receiving support and aid from the same individuals," said Moses. "We're talking about home-grown terrorist groups, people so full of hate, they would go out and kill a U.S. marshal or blow up churches."

Stoner, head of the small Marietta-based National States Rights Party, has been a fugitive since Jan. 28, when he failed to appear before a Birmingham judge in connection with a 10-year prison sentence for the 1958 bombing of Bethel Baptist Church in Birmingham.

No one was killed in the early morning bombing of the church, which served as a civil rights activists' field headquarters. Stoner was convicted of setting off dynamite dangerously near inhabited residences.

Kahl has been sought since a February shootout in North Dakota as marshals attempted to arrest him for violating a tax evasion parole. Two federal marshals were killed, and a third injured.

A letter published last month by the Fargo, N.D., Eagle — believed to have been written by Kahl — claimed he shot in self-defense. The letter attacked taxes, Jews and communists.

"The charges against Kahl speak for themselves. Stoner has threatened FBI agents in the past, and we consider him capable of violence," said Moses. "We will be taking no risks."

Moses said the Birmingham FBI office — which is coordinating the search for Stoner — has shifted its search for Stoner to the Southwest following interviews with acquaintances and past associates of Stoner's.

A veteran agent who headed up the FBI investigation into the 1979 shooting of five leftists by Klan and American Nazi Party members in Greensboro, N.C., Moses expressed confidence that authorities are only weeks away from arresting Stoner.

"We're considering his age — he's almost 58 — and the wear and tear of being a fugitive. It's hard enough on a young person, and it has to be much harder on a man his age to be able to get a night's sleep and not knowing whether there's going to be that knock on the door," Moses said.

Moses also said he considered Stoner's health to be working against him, noting that he walks with a limp from a childhood bout with polio.

While he would not be specific, the FBI supervisor did say: "We have placed him at a couple of locations since he's been a fugitive: once in the Southeast, another time in the Southwest. Each time the trail was cold before we got onto it. It was not like we were within a few hours, it was more like a few days."

Authorities have had constant tips concerning Stoner, most of them leading nowhere. One in particular was an anonymous tip that Stoner would meet an associate at a Birmingham blue-collar bar at a specific time, to receive money. "We had the place covered, and he didn't show," Moses said.

While the search for Kahl is coordinated by the Minneapolis FBI office, Birmingham has been assigned an active role in looking for the North Dakotan, Moses said. And the search for both men has grown from regional to national.

"We've talked to a number of well-known Klan members in the Southeast who will acknowledge knowing both Stoner and Kahl, but of course they deny any knowledge of their whereabouts," Moses said.

"Stoner's probably moving from location to location, through a network of supporters who could leave themselves open to prosecution. We'd be delighted if we could round up a few dozen of them later and prove that they did in fact harbor him. . . . If that is the case, we'll prosecute every single one who has helped him."

For your information, SAC, Birmingham airtel to the Director dated 2/16/83, requested recipient offices to identify present members of the Ku Klux Klan, National States Party, American Nazi Party and similar organizations, and thereafter, interview these individuals concerning the whereabouts of J. B. Stoner. In connection with these interviews, the Knoxville Division initiated investigation on a UACB basis to also determine the existence of the Sheriff's Posse Comitatus in the East Tennessee area in order to determine the whereabouts of Gordon Wendell Kahl, fugitive in the Marmurs case.

To date there is no positive information that would indicate that J. B. Stoner may be in hiding with Gordon Kahl.

On 4/19/83, the Dallas Division reported that a source had received information that Stoner and Kahl are together in Mexico City. This information has not been substantiated.

Judge Webster:

RE: J.B. STONER, et al.

By memorandum to [redacted] dated April 25, 1983, and captioned as above, you expressed concern that a lead set forth by SAC, Birmingham airtel dated February 16, 1983, may have violated FBI guidelines relating to Domestic Security Investigations. You requested that Legal Counsel Division (LCD) "[p]lease look into this and advise."

A copy of the airtel is attached. The airtel sets forth a number of leads for various receiving offices relating to the Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution (UFAP) investigation of the captioned subject. The specific lead with which you expressed concern is:

All Receiving Offices:

Attempt to identify present members of the KKK, National States Rights Party, American Nazi (sic) Party and similar organizations through informants or local law enforcement - intelligence agencies and other sources, including resident agency territories (sic).

Thereafter, interview these individuals concerning the whereabouts of subject beginning with the most prominent or active members of these organizations in your respective territories.

Note that at the conclusion of the airtel, the following statement is made:

NOTE: THIS IS NOT A DOMESTIC SECURITY INVESTIGATION OF ANY GROUP, POLITICAL PARTY, ETC. THIS IS A CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION CONCERNING A SUBSTANTIVE VIOLATION OF A FEDERAL LAW WHICH THE FBI HAS JURISDICTION.

LCD has concluded that although the above-cited lead is overly broad, it does not constitute a violation of FBI guidelines relating to domestic security investigations.

The Attorney General's Guidelines On General Crimes, Racketeering Enterprise And Domestic Security/Terrorism Investigations (AG Guidelines), effective 3/21/83, delineate two categories of investigations that may be conducted by the FBI, General Crimes Investigations and Criminal Intelligence Investigations. The AG Guidelines further divide Criminal Intelligence Investigations into two categories, Racketeering Enterprise Investigations and Domestic Security/Terrorism Investigations. The introduction to Section III.B, which deals with Domestic Security/Terrorism Investigations, states that:

This section focuses on investigations of enterprises, other than those involved in international terrorism, whose goals are to achieve political or social change through activities that involve force or violence. (Emphasis supplied.)

The AG Guidelines require that a domestic security/terrorism investigation be authorized by you or a designated Assistant Director, upon a written recommendation setting forth the facts or circumstances reasonably indicating the existence of an enterprise whose goals are to achieve political or social change through activities that involve force or violence in violation of federal laws. A domestic security/terrorism investigation initiated pursuant to the AG Guidelines may collect information such as the membership of the organization. Section III.B.3.a.(i). Thus, it is clear that if the lead set forth in the airtel related to an investigation of any of the listed organizations, it would violate the AG Guidelines, absent appropriate authorization. At the present time, none of the organizations set forth in the lead are the subjects of FBI investigations, with the exception of two small factions within the Klu Klux Klan.^{1/}

However, the captioned investigation, as emphasized in the note at the conclusion of the airtel, is not a Domestic Security/Terrorism investigation, but rather an investigation of a substantive criminal offense falling within the FBI's jurisdiction. Inasmuch as the organizations listed in the lead are not themselves the subject or focus of the investigation, LCD has concluded that the investigation more properly falls within that portion of the AG Guidelines dealing with General Crimes Investigations.

LCD believes that the issue thus presented is whether, in the context of a general criminal investigation, the FBI may properly attempt to ascertain the membership of political organizations, with a view toward interviewing members of such organizations regarding their possible knowledge of the whereabouts of a fugitive.

Section IV.A. of the AG Guidelines, entitled "Investigative Techniques," provides that:

When conducting investigations under these guidelines the FBI may use any lawful investigative technique. Before employing a technique, the FBI should consider whether the information could be obtained in a timely and effective way by less intrusive means.

^{1/} This information was provided by SA [redacted]
[redacted] Criminal Investigative Division (CID).

It is well established that an individual's freedom of association is included within the First Amendment. Bates v. City of Little Rock, 361 U.S. 516 (1960), and courts have not hesitated to protect individuals' freedom of association from governmental intrusion. Thus, for example, the Government may not condition employment upon a non-exercise of one's freedom of speech or association, United States v. Robel, 389 U.S. 258 (1967), nor may a State obtain and make public an organization's membership list absent a compelling governmental interest. Bates v. City of Little Rock, 361 U.S. 516 (1960). However, in the captioned case, the FBI is not attempting to compel any individual or organization to disclose the memberships of the organizations set forth in the lead. Rather, receiving offices are directed to obtain information regarding such memberships through normal investigative methods and then interview members regarding their possible knowledge of Stoner's whereabouts - not regarding their membership in the organization, or the organization's activities or goals. As a general proposition, LCD believes that when the FBI has reason to believe that a fugitive is either a member of or has had some connection with a particular organization or organizations, the FBI may attempt to determine the membership of such organization through normal investigative techniques in order to interview such members regarding the subject, when this is a logical investigative step. The factor which makes the present case somewhat sensitive is that due to the controversial political views of the listed organizations, members might argue that the actions of the FBI in identifying and interviewing them "chilled" their First Amendment activities. However, because the FBI is conducting a lawful criminal investigation, and assuming individual members of the organizations will be contacted and interviewed by FBI agents acting in a good faith effort to locate Stoner, LCD believes that whatever subjective "chilling" may be caused to individuals' First Amendment rights would not rise to the level of "abridgement." "Not every Government action that affects, has an impact on, or indeed inhibits First Amendment activity constitutes the kind of 'abridgment' condemned by the First Amendment." Reporters Com. v. American Telephone & Telegraph, 593 F.2d 1030, 1052 (D.C. Cir. 1978), cert. denied, 440 U.S. 949 (1979).

LCD has concluded that the above-cited lead, although clearly overly broad,^{2/} neither constitutes a violation of that portion of the AG Guidelines dealing with Domestic Security/Terrorism Investigations, nor is an unlawful investigative technique in the context of a General Crimes Investigation. LCD believes, however, that any names of members of the listed organizations obtained pursuant to investigation conducted in response to the lead should be recorded in FBI files only if such individuals were contacted by the FBI regarding the subject. Investigation conducted by Field Divisions in response to the lead should not be a mechanism by which the FBI collects and maintains membership lists of the organizations.

Legal Counsel

^{2/} LCD believes the lead might more appropriately have, for example, requested receiving offices to contact individuals publicly holding themselves out as officers or influential members of particular organizations that the FBI had reason to believe Stoner may have had contact with. Additionally, the catchall phrase "and similar organizations" may leave too much discretion to individual offices to pursue interviews of members of groups where there would be little or no logical reason to suspect any association with the fugitive.

Re: J. B. STONER, aka - FUGITIVE (A);
 UFAC - SETTING OFF EXPLOSIVES
 DANGEROUSLY NEAR INHABITED DWELLING
 OO: BIRMINGHAM

Attached Mobile teletype advises of the arrest of J.B. Stoner.

On 6/2/83, fugitive J.B. Stoner was arrested by an FBI Agent, accompanied by a bail bondsman in Montgomery, Alabama. The bail bondsman, while empowered to arrest Stoner whose bond he posted, did not exercise that authority. Stoner, following his arrest, was immediately taken into custody by Alabama Department of Corrections where he will be housed.

Attempt to interview Stoner by FBI Agents regarding his prior activities resulted in his response of "no comment" to every question posed including questions about the possible whereabouts of Gordon Kahl.

- B - Subjects wanted for crimes involving the loss or destruction of property valued in excess of $25,000 or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.

Claiming Convictions Other Than Federal:

It is permissible to claim a local (state, county or local) conviction if the FBI's investigation significantly contributed to the successful local prosecution. A succinct narrative setting forth the basis for claiming a local conviction must accompany this report. When claiming a conviction other than Federal, enter the word "LOCAL" in the "Conviction-Section" block, disregard the number of conviction counts, but enter the sentence in the appropriate blocks. Enter "LF" in the "In-Jail" block for all life sentences and "CP" for all capital punishment sentences.

Reporting Convictions:

Convictions should not be reported until the sentence has been issued. There are two exceptions to this rule. The conviction information can be submitted by itself if:

- 1. The subject becomes a fugitive after conviction but prior to sentencing.
- 2. The subject dies after conviction but prior to sentencing.

An explanation is required in the Remarks section for either of the above exceptions.

Rule 20 Situations:

The field office that obtained the process (normally the office of origin) is the office that should claim the conviction, not the office where the subject enters the plea in cases involving Rule 20 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures.

Investigative Assistance or Techniques (IA/Ts) Used:

-Since more than one IA/T could have contributed to the accomplishment, each IA/T must be rated.

-The IA/T used must be rated each time an accomplishment is claimed. (For example - if informant information was the basis for a complaint, an arrest, a recovery and a conviction and if separate FD-515s are submitted for each of the aforementioned accomplishments, the "Informant Information" block must be rated on each FD-515 even if it was the same information that contributed to all the accomplishments.)

J.B. Stoner transferred to prison in southwest corner of Alabama

By Bill Montgomery
Staff Writer

The guards came at 7 a.m., without prior notice, to J.B. Stoner's tiny cell at the Kilby Correctional Facility outside Montgomery, Ala. "Pack up," they said. "You're leaving."

By noon, the Marietta white supremacist and former fugitive, convicted of bombing a Birmingham church, was resituated in what Alabama authorities say will probably be his permanent abode, a special security cell at another prison in the southwest corner of the state.

Authorities said the move — and the abrupt fashion in which it was executed — was to protect Stoner, an avowed racist who fled a prison sentence because he feared he would be killed by black inmates. But friends who have been in contact with Stoner since his move last week say he dislikes his new abode even more.

"At least at Kilby, he could see outside. He had a view of traffic on the highway," Dorothy Bickley said after visiting Stoner Wednesday at the Fountain Correctional Facility in Atmore, Ala., some 37 miles north of Pensacola. "Now he faces a brick wall. He doesn't know what the weather is unless it thunders," added Mrs. Bickley, an office secretary at the headquarters of Stoner's National States Rights Party.

Stoner still looks as pale as he did June 2 when he surrendered in Montgomery, Ala., ending a four-month flight to avoid serving 10 years for his conviction in a 1958 church bombing. But friends said the 59-year-old lawyer appeared in good spirits, optimistic about a habeas corpus appeal before U.S. District Judge Truman Hobbs in Montgomery.

Jerry Taylor, Hobbs' law clerk, said Thursday a ruling will probably come within the next two weeks.

Stoner filed the appeal upon his surrender last June, arguing that he should be freed because Alabama unconstitutionally waited 19 years before indicting him — in August 1977 — in the dynamite bombing of the Bethel Baptist Church in Birmingham.

Tried and convicted in May 1980 by a predominantly white Birmingham jury, Stoner delayed his confinement by more than two years of legal appeals, and an abortive flight in late January, when he was ordered to begin his sentence.

"He feels if the court's fair and rules the way it should, he'll win. If not, he knows he has to do his time, and he'll do it the best he can," said Mrs. Bickley.

Eugene Wilson, a Jacksonville, Fla., electrician who now holds Stoner's old office as chairman of the States' Rights Party, said the party may try to enter Stoner as a candidate for state office in the 1984 elections whether the habeas appeal succeeds or not.

Fountain, a one-story, white-painted cinder block structure, with no air conditioning, surrounded by thousands of acres of farmland tended by inmates, is Alabama's designated prison for inmates who are deemed in need of special protection. It is located across the highway from Holman prison, site of Alabama's electric chair.

Alabama prisons spokesman Ron Tate said Stoner was moved to the south Alabama facility from the hospital wing at Kilby because his cell there was needed, and authorities intend on keeping Stoner in protective custody.
